

Bathroom Radiant Heat Planner

Don't let the prep work get you overwhelmed. We can help you plan your bathroom's radiant heat project, and we'll be with you all along the way.

Steps to Consider for Your Radiant Heat Project

1. Assess your needs

Ask yourself, what purpose do you want radiant heat for – primary heating source, secondary heating source? Are you looking for added style, added comfort? Take some time to decide your budget, style, and desired radiant products.

2. Establish a budget range

Adding radiant heat is an investment, while it ranges, depending on the product, take a look at the investment in light of the dividend return of an energy efficient product like radiant heating. Setting your budget range will help you assess the products that are a perfect fit for you and your lifestyle.

3. Finalize room layout and design

If you're adding radiant in-floor heating, send us a layout or the room dimensions, and we'll get you a free quote and a custom SmartPlan™ for an easy installation. Send it to (800) 408-1100 (fax) or call us at (800) 875-5285, and if that isn't enough, try out our Project Planner Online Tool. We make it that easy on you!

4. Choose your radiant product(s)

With a wide range of products, WarmlyYours is the only radiant heating company to offer a complete floor heating, snow melting, deicing, and comfort products (towel warmers, mirror defoggers). Choose from any of our products that will suit any area of life.

5. Plan for the installation

Planning for the installation is important and we have it covered from installation overviews to in-depth manuals, and an Installer and Dealer Locator with a list of qualified professionals to get your job done. If you're a "weekend warrior," then we've got you covered with 24/7 installation and technical support.

6. Sit back, relax, and enjoy the warmth of radiant heat

With unbeatable No Nonsense™ Warranties, up to 25-years, that covers all parts and labor costs, all you have to do is enjoy the warmth of radiant heat for years to come.