

Indoor Slab Heating Mats

120V & 240V Heated Cable & Mat

Are you considering one of the newest trends in homebuilding today - polished, stamped or stained concrete flooring? Even if you aren't building a new home, perhaps you have considered putting an addition on your house such as a sunroom or a garage.

You'll appreciate a warm concrete floor when its time to relax and enjoy your four-season room or change the oil in your garage on a cool Saturday morning. Now, with WarmlyYours slab heating cables and mats, you can design your concrete floors to be as warm as they are beautiful.

Slab heating is available in loose cable form for maximum flexibility or mats for quick and easy installation.
